

Together we fill the skies with music every September 11th

2008 MC Talking Points
National & International Events

Today marks the 7th Annual September Concert.

Our mission is to fill the skies with music every September 11th.

The goal of September Concerts is to bring people together, to reaffirm a hope for peace, to celebrate life and our universal humanity.

THE SEPTEMBER CONCERT IS A GLOBAL DAY OF MUSIC FOR PEACE.

Our event today at (your NAME, LOCATION, HOST) is one of nearly 200 events being held all across the USA and internationally; from New York City to Santa Barbara, California; from Rice Lake, Wisconsin to Houston, Texas – the skies are being filled by music. Internationally we are joined by cities such as Casablanca, Tokyo, Rome, London and Bangalore.

Together we will fill the skies with music!

IMPORTANT:

If you are able to include the following song in your program, let your audience know it is being performed as the 2008 Anthem of Hope and Peace and encourage them to sing along:

Let it Be by the Beatles.

Be sure to provide us with photos, video, and reports on your event.
Good luck, enjoy the power of music!
